Subject:Electing the CE

In my opinion, the CE should be elected by the approval both parties: Communist Party of China in Beijing and by the people of Hong Kong.

How should CE be elected? Anyone citizen that holds a permanent resident status in Hong Kong can apply to the China liason office to become a CE.

Each candidate must go through a type of job interview, a rigorous process setup by the CCP to ensure, each candidate have compatible ideas, views, and a working relationship. It should be a way that the CCP has some idea where the candidate stands for and can the CCP work with this candidate. If the candidate is successful in this first step. The 2nd step the candidate must launch a political campagin to win the votes of Hong Kong. The people of Hong Kong will then have a choice to vote for their Beijing approved candidates. The minimal amount of candidates to run for CE must be 2.
