

Article 15: Statements made as a result of torture shall not be invoked as evidence 15.1 The position is essentially as explained in paragraphs 135 to 136 of the initial report. The number of Police Video Interview Rooms has increased from 11 in 1996 to 74 as at 31 May 2012. Every major divisional police station has at least one such facility. As for the ICAC, the use of video-interviewing has long been its standard practice. The immigration investigation offices and major control points are now equipped with video-recording facilities. The same is also true for all Customs offices.
