Subject: no way, please

To HK government,

This is very difficult to understand what is going on in HK government policy. Few weeks ago, the gov't just say we need more and wide income, so introduce of GST tax to HK people, but now you found another excuse to spend more money on political, please, for the benefit of local people, can the gov't say something and make something bit more sensible.

If those upper class management level whom they cope with their jobs, so they need more assistant or help, please ask them change their jobs and appoint other people bit more intelligent.

I have enough from the local political, too.

Thanks.

Andy Tsui
